

PATHFINDER PARTY REACHES PORTLAND

Warm Welcome Awaits Those Who Go on Munsey Historic Tour.

COUNTRY TRAVERSED RICH IN HISTORY

Roads a Little Rougher In Pine Woods of Maine, But Scenery Is Beautiful.

PORTLAND, Me., June 24.—The Pathfinders for the Munsey Historical Tour in their E-M-F car received a warm welcome in this city, not only from automobile men but from public officials. Mayor Charles A. Strout greeted the party in front of his office and extended to them the courtesies of the city. He said he was sorry that definite arrangements had not been made for the tourists to stop in this city all night when they came through here on August 20 and promised that everything possible should be done in the way of policing the streets to insure a pleasant drive through the town.

The road to Poland Springs was taken by the pathfinder party early this morning and it was with much regret that they left the historic city of Portland behind them.

Passing through this city the tourists will find much to interest them. The house where the poet Longfellow lived is still in fine condition on Congress street. It is the oldest brick house in the city and is a fine specimen of colonial architecture.

Beacon Light Guides Smugglers.

Deering Park was the scene of a fierce battle in the French and Indian war and several hundred savages fell in an attempt to capture and burn the gallantly defended settlement. At the park is also an old beacon light, which, besides fulfilling its functions of warning approaching ships of the dangers of the coast, also served at one time as a guide for smugglers. Tradition has it that certain lights were burned on the lower, and that, guided by this beacon, the contraband men lighted their cargoes into the water, from which they were afterward rescued by the thrifty local folk and transferred to their cellars and stores without the payment of duties.

The city was destroyed twice by the Indians and once was swept by a great conflagration. The great fire, which was one of the most damaging catastrophes in the history of the country, took place in 1759.

Coming up from Portsmouth, N. H., the roads continue to wind in and out along the rocky coast. It abounds in summer resorts, all of which seem to have magnificent bathing beaches.

Memories of Colonial Days.

The country is full of memories of the old Colonial days when all this section was exposed to the raids of the French privateers which dropped down from Canada and went on plundering expeditions along the Maine coast.

Before coming to Biddeford, the tourists will run for a distance along the old Kings road, which was constructed back about 1650 and has ever since been a popular highway. One time it resounded with the war-whoops of hostile Indians, but now the most popular sound along its length is the hum of motors as pleasure parties go from one resort to another in their machines.

Passing through Winslow, the tourists will see on their right the memorial stone erected to perpetuate the memory of the brave men and women who met that spot, making a determined resistance to the French and Indians in 1692 and drove off the enemy in what was the last battle of the French and Indian war.

Road Through Pine Forests.

The road along this part is rough. From Biddeford to Portland it runs through forests of pine and hemlocks, with occasional glimpses of the sea to the right; but the road bed is full of ruts and the going is hard. When within a few miles of Portland the pathfinder party found better highways and came into the city over fair roads.

Following the cars in the Maine Touring Club of America, the pathfinder party will go over in the direction of Vermont, where the local reports say the cars in the Munsey run will be thoroughly tested out.

When the Munseyites left the trail out of Boston for the run to Poland Springs, via Portland, they will find the going rather rough. The day's mileage will be 183 miles, with a noon stop at Portsmouth, N. H. Out of Boston the run over the parkways of that city will be found enticing, and splendid macadam roads will be encountered until the border line between New Hampshire and Maine is reached.

To Make Stop Pleasant.

When the tourists reach Portsmouth they will proceed direct to the Rockingham, where lunch will be served, and where the cars can be oiled and the fuel replenished. Manager Pattie, of the Rockingham, is greatly interested in the tour, and has promised to lend his best efforts to make the tourists' brief stop in Portsmouth interesting.

The rough Maine roads have no effect on the Morgan & Wright "Nobby Tread" tires, with which the E-M-F pathfinder is equipped. A continuous road to hold up to the work in great shape, much to the delight of the pathfinders. The Jones speedometer is registering the mileage with great accuracy, while the Jones electric horn clears the road when obstinate drivers are inclined to "hog" it. The far the Weed chain tire grips have not been found necessary.

POLICE SEEKING BALTIMORE BOY

The police today are looking for two runaway Baltimore boys—Ferdinand Cioffi, fourteen years old, and Samuel Carbona, thirteen—believed to be in this city.

Mrs. Valentine Cioffi, of Baltimore, came to Washington last evening and asked the police to find her son and the Carbona boy. Mrs. Cioffi said she gave Ferdinand permission to come to Washington several days ago, but had heard nothing from him.

THE BURROWS IS LAUNCHED.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—The new torpedo boat destroyer Burrows, which was launched at the yard of the New York Shipbuilding Company at Camden, N. J., is 29 feet long, and capable of 2 1/2 knots an hour. The boat was christened by Miss Lorna Dorothea Burrows, of Cleveland, a descendant of Lieut. William Burrows, U. S. N., after whom the destroyer was named.

GLIDDEN TOURISTS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Dozen Contesting Cars Check In At End of Run From Lawton.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 23.—With only twelve contesting, and only one or two official and non-contesting cars, the Glidden tourists reached this city this afternoon.

This is the first time in the history of the tour that so few cars checked in at a night stop. The run today from Lawton, was relatively easy, except for the extreme heat and there was little to check the steady going over the prairies.

The following are the machines now competing for the Glidden trophy: Premier, McNamara; Premier, Ballinger; Chalmers, Graham; Chalmers, Bolgers; Maxwell, Walls; Glide, Castle; Cino, Donnelly.

For the Chicago trophy, the following cars are competing: Three Morrises, driven by Vandervent, Wicke, and Salisbury; Maxwell, Illingworth; Lexington, Moore.

The Chalmers, driven by Matson was withdrawn today to take the place of the two Chalmers cars which are unable to continue. For the first time in several years the tour started this morning without a regular pace-maker, but the big Premier acted in the capacity during the day and was first into Lawton, making a particularly fine run.

CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY SENATOR RAYNER

Maryland Solon Has Hopes of Seeing Democratic Delegation Elected.

Senator Rayner will take a leading part in the Congressional campaign in Maryland during the summer and fall. He will make speeches in most parts of the State and will be at the command of the State central committee.

The Senator believes that four and perhaps five of the Maryland districts are certain to go Democratic, and he believes that there is a fighting chance for a solid Democratic delegation in his State.

Senator Rayner will make the tariff and its effect upon the cost of living his principal issue during the Maryland campaign. He believes that the party can win on such an issue, if the issue is forcibly presented.

As soon as Congress adjourns Senator Rayner is going to his summer home at Cambridge, Md. He will remain there until after the Congressional primaries, in which he will take no part.

CONFEREES APPROVE PARKS FOR CAPITAL

Expenditure of $600,000 for Purpose in District Agreed To.

Without any objection from any source, the District features in the omnibus public buildings bill were passed in conference yesterday, and when the bill is finally acted upon in both houses, more than $600,000 will be appropriated for new parks in the city of Washington.

These are to be located on Meridian Hill and on Georgetown Heights. The conferees agreed upon the bill practically in the same form as it passed the Senate. The $600,000 additional authorization for buildings and sites is unchanged.

It has developed, however, that while the omnibus building bill provides for buildings and increases of sites for buildings, not one cent is appropriated to carry the measure into effect. It has been proposed that no action to remedy this situation be taken until next session. There is no appropriation bill that can be amended now, and another deficiency bill would have to be prepared and passed, if the money is to become available at once.

EATS CIGARETTES; DIES.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 24.—In the absence of his mother, 11-month-old Walter Wells found a package of cigarettes and his index finger. A few minutes later he was doubled up in convulsions and died as his mother was entering the house. A physician was hurriedly called, but it was too late. The case was reported to the coroner as nicotine poisoning.

"RIGOLETTO" IS SUNG BY ABORN COMPANY

Singers Handle the Beautiful Songs to the Audience's Satisfaction.

Attracted by the beauty of Verdi's tragic "Rigoletto," many lovers of music braved the heat last night to attend the opening as it was given by the Aborn Opera Company.

Caruso sang the beauty of this opera into the hearts of the American public long years ago, but it does not grow old. Each time the beautiful "Ode to Woman" is sung by one who appreciates its charm as did Domenico Russo last night, there is the same old thrill that came when it was first sung.

Is there beauty in such tragedy as this? Is there enjoyment in the story of the wrongs of the fair, pure daughter of the old hunchback? Probably not. Few there are who look with pleasure on the dishonor of maidenhood or the vengeance of the deformed old jester, but Verdi has laid away much of the tragic story in the beauty and charm of his music.

Fair, golden-haired Edith Helena was the daughter of the old hunchback last night. She and Mr. Russo sang the love song in the second act to the great satisfaction of the audience. Their voices blended into that beautiful harmony admirably and their actions were graceful and natural.

But the audience undoubtedly appreciated most of all the "Ode to Woman" as sung by Russo, and they could hardly pass it by without an encore. However, Russo did not see fit to sing it again.

Achille Alberti played the old hunchback's part well.

WIMBUSH ADMITS THEFT OF JEWELS

Pleads Guilty to Charge of Robbery, While His Wife Is Released.

When arraigned in Police Court today, Hamilton S. Wimbush, formerly a coachman in the employ of Mrs. Rebecca B. Hornsby, of 1715 I street, pleaded guilty to the robbery of $18,000 worth of Mrs. Hornsby's jewels. In default of $3,000 bail he was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. Louisa Wimbush, wife of the defendant, who was arrested last night, charged with implication in the theft, was released.

Wimbush's theft of the jewels occurred March 1. It was not until Wednesday of this week that they were found in a can in the Hornsby stables. Wimbush confessed immediately after being arrested.

Detective Weedon, who ran the case down, informed the court that all but $1,500 worth of the jewelry had been recovered.

URGES BIG OUTLAY FOR SCHOOL WORK

Senator Dolliver Will Push Ambitious Measure Next Session.

COMMITTEE MAKES FAVORABLE REPORT

Expenditure of $10,000,000 Proposed to Foster Study of Home Economics.

Senator Dolliver of Iowa has ambitious plans for the extension of the study of agriculture, the trades, and home economics, as provided for in the bill which he has just had favorably reported to the Senate. This makes an appropriation of nearly $10,000,000 to be divided among the States and the District of Columbia.

The Iowa proposes that this sum of money shall be expended through State institutions entirely. The bill contemplates, however, appropriations from the States equivalent to the sums which they shall receive from the Federal Government. It is expected that Maryland will get about $25,000; the District, about $125,000; Pennsylvania, about $400,000; and Massachusetts, about the same as Maryland.

Speaking of his bill, Senator Dolliver says: "This bill is a comprehensive way recognizes the school system of the country, so as to include the manual vocations and home-making with the general studies of our entire public school system."

The bill seeks to co-operate with the States by giving to each its proportionate share of the $5,000,000 for agricultural high schools and an equivalent sum for high school work in the trades and industries in the cities, $1,000,000 to be used by the State normal schools in preparing teachers for these vocational subjects, and $1,000,000 to establish extension departments in the State colleges of agriculture and mechanical arts.

The normal school fund alone is available from the first year, so that the teachers may be trained to instruct in the new subjects provided for. The fund for extension work starts in at $500,000 annually, and does not reach the full amount of $1,000,000 for five years.

Scholar Dolliver expects that his bill will be one of the five issues of the next session of Congress.

This Laxative for Children Free

I have preached to mothers for years to be careful what they give their children for bowel trouble. Not everything is fit for the delicate organs of a child. Cathartic pills are too strong even when crushed or broken in half, and salts and purgatives are both too strong and bad-tasting. Then what is the remedy? It should be a liquid, in which the taste is disguised so as to make it palatable, and it must be mild and not gripe. The remedy that fills these requirements is and druggists have sold it for me for a quarter of a century. Mothers are giving it to their children today who were given it by their parents when they were children, and the grandparents are still using it. There is no better laxative obtainable for children, women and old folks, for these especially need a gentle though none the less effective remedy. It is a guaranteed cure for constipation, liver trouble, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, etc. Given to the child before retiring, or in the morning on arising, it will be relieved in a few hours, and a brief use of it as directed will prevent a recurrence of the trouble. To prove my claims I will send a free sample bottle to anyone on receipt of name and address. Then, if convinced, buy it as others do of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Read what users say.

DR. CALDWELL PERSONALLY WILL BE PLEASED TO GIVE YOU ANY MEDICAL ADVICE YOU MAY DESIRE FOR YOURSELF OR FAMILY PERTAINING TO THE STOMACH, LIVER OR BOWELS. ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE. EXPLAIN YOUR CASE IN A LETTER AND HE WILL REPLY TO YOU IN DETAIL. FOR THE FREE SAMPLE SIMPLY SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS ON A POSTAL CARD OR OTHERWISE. FOR EITHER REQUEST THE DOCTOR'S ADDRESS IS DR. W. B. CALDWELL, R. 525 CALDWELL BLDG., MONTICELLO, ILL.

This baby is my grandson. His name is McKinley Dixon and I have witnessed to prove that Syrup Pepsin has made this boy what he is in health. After he began using Syrup Pepsin he gained from 1 to 2 1/2 pounds a week. His weight was 24 pounds at four months of age; he had no trouble in cutting teeth. He has ten or twelve teeth and is only six months old. You may copy any part of my letter you wish for it is true and stand in the Last Day.—G. W. Witten, Mingo, Ky.

Will let you know what your wonderful remedy did for my little girl Dorothy. I had had different kinds of medicine and doctors, but have never in my life seen anything act so quick and without pain as your Syrup Pepsin. It is certainly the best medicine and I shall never be without it again and will recommend it to all my friends.

MRS. M. JOHNSON, 752 Dayton St., Kenosha, Wis.

I will state that I had stomach trouble of some kind: I was swollen, my breath was short, I had palpitation of the heart; I had no energy and I was dizzy. I took one bottle of Syrup Pepsin and now my blood is all gone. I have no more heart trouble. I feel good in every way. I had tried everything I could hear of and nothing did me any good until I commenced the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I am very thankful to you for such a medicine, which I can heartily endorse and recommend to all who are suffering from stomach troubles.—J. F. DANIELS, Saron, Texas.
